My dear Miss Whitney

The reason of my silence has not been want of gratitude for your most kind reply but rather because I have been very ill & have had to undergo an operation and have been altogether laid aside. I have been working on my little statistics and have I think improved it which has caused a delay

Since I recovered, now the plaster is to be finally cast & I will at once communicate with your worker - for whose name I am so grateful. I have asked

Anna Gordon to be good enough to discharge a letter with to you for the cake I was so very ill when it came I could not see it or eat of it for days - but I am trying now to strengthen back to strength.

With grateful thanks & warm regards to Miss Manning

Yours gratefully & affly

Isabel Seavern
